SMALL POX SITUATION

There has been twelve cases of small pox in Anadarko during the last four weeks. Eleven cases occurred in our family, on East Kansas Ave. The other case is located in the three hundred block on East Main. Within the next few days both of these quarantines will be removed.

Every possible precaution, commensurate with the demands of the situation, has been made to confine these cases, and we believe that our efforts have been well protected and compensated.

Signed, R. W. Williams,
Co. Physician.
C. R. Hume,
City Physician.
